

Energy-saving export price of active optical fiber cable

Overview

This executive briefing on trade (EBOT) will examine the relationship between fiber optic cable input costs, specifically silica tetrachloride, helium, and energy, and the demand forces that have increased the price of fiber optic cable. It will help end users understand the complex market and various trends of the global Active Optical Cable (AOC) market. They outperform copper regarding performance and efficiency since they enable data transmission at much higher speeds, consume less power, and transmit over longer distances. According to Volza's Global. Units: Index Dec 2003=100, Not Seasonally Adjusted Frequency: Monthly U. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Producer Price Index by Industry: Fiber Optic Cable Manufacturing: Fiber Optic Cable, Made from Purchased Fiber Optic Strand, retrieved from FRED, Federal Reserve Bank of St. The global market for Active Optical Cable was valued at US$ 3664 million in the year 2024 and is projected to reach a revised size of US$ 9378 million by 2031, growing at a CAGR of 14. High fiber optic cable prices may threaten the financial feasibility of information communication technology (ICT). The Active Optical Cables (AOC) Market is witnessing exceptional growth due to the rapid expansion of data centers globally.

Hyperscale and colocation data centers are growing at a rapid pace, demanding high-speed, low-latency, and energy-efficient connectivity solutions.
