

Rwanda builds communication towers

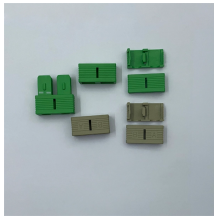

Overview

Paradigm Towers Ventures acquired IHS Rwanda in a $300 million deal. The acquisition includes 1,467 tower sites, boosting connectivity for 5. Ishara Towers Rwanda is driving Rwanda's digital future where connection fuels innovation and opportunity — one tower at a time. Ishara Towers Rwanda is a forward-looking provider of passive telecommunications infrastructure, committed to enabling seamless connectivity across Rwanda and the broader Kigali — A consortium of Rwandan banks has successfully closed a landmark financing deal under Project Zorro, marking a major step in strengthening the country's telecom infrastructure and digital economy. The transaction supports the acquisition of IHS Rwanda Limited—now rebranded as Ishara Towers. In October 2025, Paradigm Tower Ventures finalised a $274. For Paradigm, co-founded by industry veteran Stephen Harris, Rwanda is the launchpad for a. Rwanda's fast-rising digital economy has received a major boost following the entry of Paradigm Tower Ventures, a new sub-Saharan African infrastructure platform that has completed the acquisition of IHS Rwanda Limited from IHS Holding Limited. Tres got the license to Build Own Operate & Manage the Telecom Infrastructure to provide. The Minister of ICT and Innovation, Paula Ingabire, has announced that Rwanda needs $300 million to build additional telecommunications towers to ensure uninterrupted nationwide internet coverage.

Rwanda builds communication towers

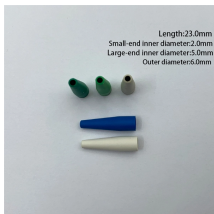

This transaction marks the first investment by Paradigm Tower Ventures, a new tower platform which is focused on the growth of new build shared wireless infrastructure in Sub-Saharan ...

As Rwanda advances its ambition to become a knowledge-based, digitally driven economy, investments in infrastructure such as telecom towers are seen as critical to enabling ...

The acquisition, first announced in May 2025, transfers ownership of 1,467 telecom towers across Rwanda to Paradigm, establishing it as the leading independent tower operator in the ...

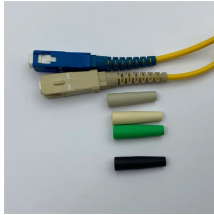

Empowering the world's communications infrastructure. In early 2009, Venuste Twagiramungu a first-generation Entrepreneur offered his company Trust Engineering Services (TRES) to the Regulatory ...

Ishara Towers Rwanda is a forward-looking provider of passive telecommunications infrastructure, committed to enabling seamless connectivity across Rwanda and the broader East African region.

Originally announced in May 2025, the transaction transfers ownership of approximately 1,467 tower sites across Rwanda to Paradigm, establishing the platform as Rwanda's leading ...

The Minister of ICT and Innovation, Paula Ingabire, has announced that Rwanda needs $300 million to build additional telecommunications towers to ensure uninterrupted nationwide internet coverage.

The acquisition, first announced in May 2025, transfers ownership of 1,467 telecom towers across Rwanda to Paradigm, establishing it as the leading ...

Paradigm Towers Ventures acquired IHS Rwanda in a $300 million deal. The acquisition includes 1,467 tower sites, boosting connectivity for 5.3 million users.

The acquisition of 100% of the equity in IHS Rwanda marked the first investment by Paradigm's new Sub-Saharan African tower platform, Paradigm Tower Ventures, which is focused on ...

In October 2025, Paradigm Tower Ventures finalised a $274.5 million acquisition of IHS Rwanda's 1,465 telecom towers, marking the exit of IHS Towers from the country and the entry of a new, ambitious ...

Contact Us

For more information, pricing, or custom data center solutions, please contact us:

Website: <https://www.yoahorroenergia.es>

Email: hello@yoahorroenergia.es

Phone: +233 54 318 7269

Address: Plot 28, Spintex Road, Accra, Greater Accra, Ghana

This document is for informational purposes only. Specifications subject to change without notice.

